Robotics Race Rubric

0	1	2	Extra Points
Measurement terms are not understood - pre assessment and in project work	Some measurement terms are understood - pre assessment and in project work	Most to all measurement terms are understood - pre assessment and in project work	Measurement terms are used orally during race
Algorithm is incomplete	Algorithm is complete and robot moves	Algorithm is complete, robot moves fast	Algorithm has been adjusted according to feedback
Student was not able to share evidence of executive function skills (organizing, self-regulation, planning and overcoming challenge)	Student shared one example of how executive functioning skills were used in the learning process	Student shares more than one example of how executive functioning skills were used in the learning process.	Student shared executive functioning skills involved in the project and examples of problem solving/perseverance

Total Points: